YOU'RE AWESOME

The Approach

The Approach

- Minimalistic Approach: Places I worked for and positions I had speak for themselves
- Open Approach: HRs are telling me I can't have a multi-pages CV so I will tell you everything on Linkedin

Make sure to add a photo that presents you in a positive way

Make sure to keep your job title up to date. When switching workplaces Linkedin likes to mess things up keeping your old title.

- Only list job positions (minimalistic approach) || list job positions and provide descriptions (open approach)
- You don't need to list all job positions. It depends on your professional journey and whether you want to create a cohesive story around it (all-around person VS one-domain person)
- Make sure to provide correct dates
- Stick to your company titles unless they are out of this world, then adjust them
